IMPORTANT MESSAGE

NOTICE TO ALL MEMBERS AND FORMER MEMBERS OF THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MACHINISTS AND AEROSPACE WORKERS (IAMAW)

WHO OPTED TO RETIRE/RESIGN FROM AIR CANADA AND REHIRE BY AVEOS

RE: DISTRIBUTION OF EXCESS FUNDS UNDER SEPTEMBER 12, 2012 ARBITRATION DECISION

30-DAY LIST REVIEW PERIOD

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Transportation District 140 of the IAMAW is preparing to distribute certain funds that remain in its possession as a result of a September 12, 2012 Arbitration Decision that assigned $55M to the Union to cover the cost of the Air Canada Separation Packages under Order 9996-U.

In October 2012 the Union advised its Members that, if the $55 million was more than the amount necessary to pay the packages, the Union would look at a further distribution of these excess funds to give some relief to former Air Canada employee groups that the Arbitrator ruled were not eligible to receive a package under the Order.

The Union will now equally distribute these remaining funds, less statutory deductions, to former Aveos Members who were employed at Air Canada on January 31, 2011, who opted to retire or resign from Air Canada as part of the Aveos transition process, and who were still working at Aveos at the time of its closure.

A list of eligible Members, by employee numbers and cities / bases (attached), who are deemed to have met the eligibility requirements for this final distribution, has been posted on Transportation District 140's website at www.iam140.ca.

All former Aveos Members who were employed at Air Canada on January 31, 2011, who took an option to retire or resign as part of the Air Canada / Aveos transition process and who were still working for Aveos at the time of its closure are responsible to review and confirm that their employee number and city is on the list.

If a Member believes that they meet the eligibility criteria but their employee number and city is not shown on the list they must contact their respective Shop Committee within 30 days of the posting of the list and this bulletin.

THE 30 DAY REVIEW PERIOD WILL CLOSE AT 19:00 EST on November 21, 2014. At that time a finalized list will be formulated and the excess funds will be divided equally between those Members on the finalized list. There will be no further recourse to Members not on the distribution list posted on Transportation District 140's website if they have failed to contact the Union within the 30 day posting period.
