Conciliation

Dear Brothers,
Dear Sisters,

Your IAMAW Negotiations Committee comprising of George Kuehnl, Martin St-Maurice, Nadine Legault and Nathalie Beauchamp, met with the Company representatives, Dominique Jalbert, Suzanne Lapointe, Amélie Jobin and Julie Bélanger for direct bargaining on May 15, 2017.

During this bargaining session, the Company notified the Union that it will submit a notice of dispute and apply for conciliation. The Company advised the Union that the parties were too far apart on monetary items.

All demands tabled by the Union were based on the survey feedback.

To date, your Bargaining Committee has met the Company a total of 12 days and most non-monetary items have been resolved.

Your Bargaining Committee will need your continued support and Solidarity as we move forward through this conciliation process with the goal of concluding a fair Collective Agreement that recognizes the efforts made by our members that has helped contribute to the success of the Company.

The Union will provide the dates of our next meeting as this information becomes available.

The IAMAW appreciates your continued support regarding this matter.

In Solidarity,

George Kuehnl
General Chairperson – Eastern Region
Transportation District 140, IAMAW
