TO ALL IAMAW MEMBERS EMPLOYED BY Air CANADA – TMOS 2019 BARGAINING UPDATE #1

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Your 2019 bargaining committee is currently attending a pre-negotiations training program at the William W. Winpisinger Center. We are doing this to best represent the membership in the upcoming negotiations.

A core requirement of negotiations “prep” is to develop “Internal Ground Rules” to assist the committee to best address the concerns of the wider membership. After lengthy debate, the majority of the committee agreed to a bargaining process that allows both the Maintenance and Customer Service business units to bargain and address issues separately with their own voice within a larger framework of support and the language of Appendix XXXIV.

Unfortunately, three (3) members of the TMOS bargaining committee were unable to accept or agree to the “Internal Ground Rules” and resigned their positions as members of the bargaining committee.

The remaining nine (9) members are united in their approach and determined to continue representing your collective agreement issues. We are now looking for replacements from the respective Local Lodges in order to have your voice in this important process.

In Solidarity,

Paul Hicks – 142323

Gary Doherty – 2323

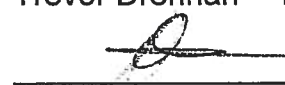

Shawn Archer – 764

Prescott Franko – 1681

Jim Burden – 1681

Steve Prinz – DL 140

Trevor Drennan – 1751

Dave Griffitts – 1751

Andrew Macfarlane – 1763

Kevin Cantin – 714

Paul Lefebvre – DL 140
