CANADA LABOUR CHANGES

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

As many of you are aware, the Federal Government has enacted several amendments to the Canada Labour Code via Bills C-63 and C-86. A number of the amendments are effective September 1, 2019.

Air Canada released an FAQ (frequently ask questions) – CLC (Canada Labour Code) communication on August 28th which provides their interpretation of the current changes to the code. Air Canada has also advised that the Federal Government has granted interim relief regarding the application of some of the new scheduling provisions.

The IAMAW has been working closely with our legal counsel to ensure all relevant information is analyzed and to determine if challenges to Air Canada's application of the amendments will be necessary.

Updates will be provided as they become available. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

In solidarity,

General Chairperson – Western Region
